ABOUT

Accurate Trade Links started in 1998 as the brainchild of Mr. Harish. It is an ISO 9001 company that provides complete total weighing & billing solutions for retail, industries, laboratories, and weighing bridges.

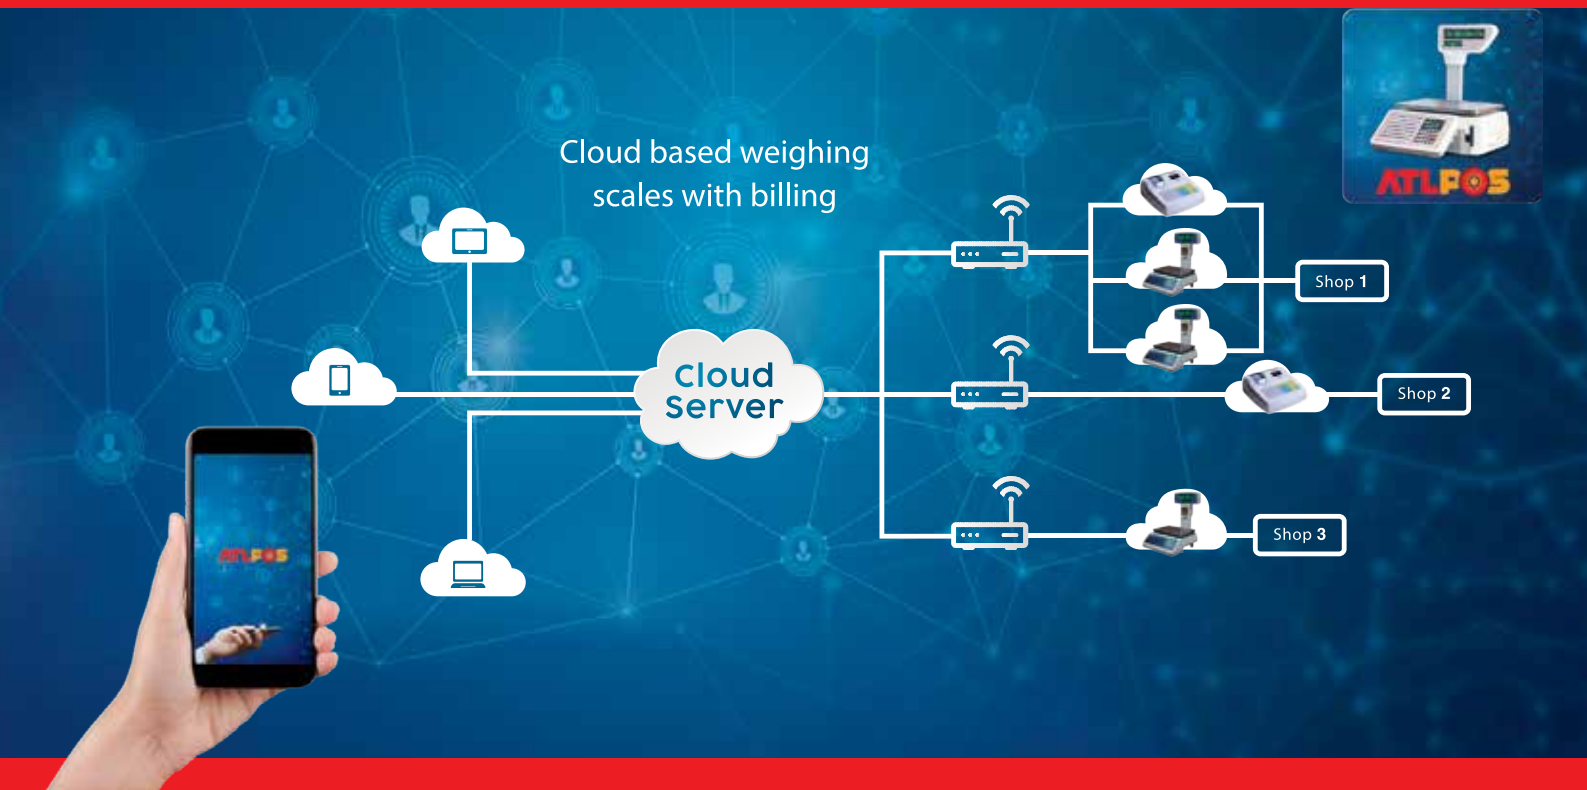

The company started out as a dealer for the brand 'Asthra' and gradually acquired major players in the commercial arena thus expanding their clientele. Our own brand "ATL Casio" was launched with the sole commitment towards customer satisfaction. This brand has the legal metrology manufacturing approval for more than six models. The newest development is the addition of the POS (point of sale) system for simplifying the interactions with customers.

With 20 years of experience and over 100,000 satisfied customers, ATL is a veritable electronic weighing scales Manufacturer & Dealer that offers excellent customer support & service to both government and private undertakings.
